

GRAPHIC CS ART AND DESIGN

8TEC: This course provides creative opportunities for developing employability skills needed in the graphic design industry. It is a highly engaging course tailored to each student's individual skills which will provide the best opportunities.

What skills you will learn?

You will learn problem solving, dynamic visual communication techniques, project management* Photoshop, InDesign, Illustrator, modelling, and how to become more creative.

How will I be assessed?

Assignments are set and marked by the college and also externally controlled assessments are marked by the exam board.

What kind of student is this course suitable for?

This course is suitable for an open minded and creative student with an artistic, Media, or Graphic Design background. It is suitable for students who show collaboration and working well as a team, who can work in an agency workspace and What could I go on to do at the end of my course?

Progression routes at the end of the course are very strong in leading towards a career or further education in the Design industries. Due to the nature of the units studied, students have excellent visual communication and graphical skills. Students in the past have gone into the fields of Animation, Advertising, Graphic Design, Architecture and 3D design; either studying a degree course, apprenticeship or employment.